

When

Ken Hensley

When will you rise, when will you rise again
When will you rise and show me the way
I need you now in my uncertainty
I need your strength to face the new day

Swept off my feet by life's sweet mystery
Sometimes it's hard just getting along
I know you're there. Why won't you come to me?
You know I'm lost without a song

Dance with me, sweet inspiration
Seems to me only you know how

Dance with me, oh, dance with me
Share my fantasy just for now

Dance with me, sweet inspiration
Seems to me only you know how
Dance with me, oh, dance with me
Share my fantasy just for now

Inspiration's gonna rise again
Gonna take me by surprise again
You'll see the light in my eyes again
Inspiration's gonna rise again
