

Go Down

Kensington

To hold A feeling of no rest in my bones To realize it's best to o fight on You see the light that lives inside all? You feel al ive enough to die?

Go down ready or not You will go down ready or not You won't fa ll on solid grounds You will go down ready or not You will go d own ready or not You won't fall on solid grounds Solid grounds

For all The feeling of no rest in our bones We need a line of d ust to thrive on To free a mind that lost the battle You need a lie to justify

Go down ready or not You will go down ready or not You won't fa ll on solid grounds You will go down ready or not You will go d own ready or not You won't fall on solid grounds Solid grounds

One for all All for one

Go down ready or not You will fall Go down ready or not You wil l fall
