

Regret

Kensington

To rise
To rule
Two heights I've never been
'Cause your mouth's an avalanche
That won't let me breathe

No pride
No growth
No fight I'll ever win
Decisive evidence
But it won't set me free

Now please don't set it in stone
I'll try to leave again today

So please don't set it in stone
I'm just a drop against a wave

So in time
But on hold
You'll learn the evident
If I'd be a better man
Then we'd rest in peace but

In spite
Enthralled
So to whatever end
I'll try to leap again
But don't grab my feet

Now please don't set it in stone
I'll try to leave again today

So please don't set in stone
I'm just a drop against a wave

Can't get out
When all I want to lose
Won't stop now
And everything I choose will break down
I never wanted to stay this long
With anyone
Can't get out
When all I want to lose
Won't stop now
And everything I choose will break down
For everything I did I now feel regret

Now please don't set it in stone
So please don't set it in stone
