Kerser

You didn't have 'em back that was all a lie
I don't trust no one, imma walk with my
Head held high, everywhere I go
That's the Kerser yo, he's got a murderous flow
Have you heard of him bro? I don't give a fuck
Got enough fans now I can live it up
And you ever thought me to be on to care
I have the judge suck me off in my underwear
Came from the bottom and they coping, amazing
Same when we got 'em and we stopped 'em engraving
I don't know what to with y'all
I don't listen to the rap, I get stupid bored
Super lord, I'm a king in fact
If I end your career we can't bring it back
So I'm being quite lenient, please say thank you
Cause I got pride and my pride will break you
Ever heard of a Kers attack?
When his enemies end up in hearses act
I ain't say too much, they call me king
If they need it sick then they call me in That's verse catch-up, I'm the man with this
And I speak so sick it's cancerous
If I ask some shit, you answer it
I'm a boss stay real, expand the shit
Came a long way, man I always say that
Gotta say that cause that's a straight fact
Where I go on a land that knows me?
Everywhere I go, it's a picture homie
Man you're the shit, you're the sickest bro
We pumpin' your shit all the time and I know near Every word to you latest, oh yeah I appreciate it but I gotta go get high

I just got to get high
High when I wake up, high when I sleep
High everyday that I'm able to breathe
I just got to get high
High when it's midday, high when it's night
High everyday, it's a part of my life
I just got to get high
High when I wake up, high when I sleep
High everyday that I'm able to breathe
I just got to get high
High when it's midday, high when it's night
High everyday, it's a part of my life

Whatchu wanna hear, an untouchable flow?
Everytime I hit the mic, I'm in a comfortable zone
Still puffin the drope, been around a while
The passion that I spit brings your frown to smiles
Seen a bit of shit, never tried to remember
Half of the shit cause my mind in a blender
Guess that's the reason we all got a temper
ABK never known to surrender
I ain't mentioning that, you don't need to know
Put water on the seed and the weed will grow
But the seed was me and I blew up so mean
Didn't use water, it had to be codeine

Oh me, am I off me head?
I didn't right that shit, that's what the doctor said
What I meant to do, just lie to you?
No way fuck me, imp high as too
Let's get back on the track where the rappin' is fat
And I'm smashing it lad since back of the cab
That single drive from Ingleburn
Stingy cunt wouldn't risk a earn
I mean risk a loss, he'd make his pay
No discounts for ABK
I see fuck man I miss the days
What you miss about them getting pissed again?
All the shitty trains, that we used to jump
I don't know it's weird, I just miss the stuff
And I've had enough of this shit right here
Chinese whispers in my left right ear
If I left right here would you show me love?
Got my middle finger up saying go get fucked
Oh the cunt, just let me fly
If you didn't fuckin know I just wanna get high

I just got to get high
High when I wake up, high when I sleep
High everyday that I'm able to breathe
I just got to get high
High when it's midday, high when it's night
High everyday, it's a part of my life
I just got to get high
High when I wake up, high when I sleep
High everyday that I'm able to breathe
I just got to get high
High when it's midday, high when it's night
High everyday, it's a part of my life

I just got to get high
I just got to get high
