Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle
Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle

Ratesy man I'm spinning, Jay Dee, gotta say I'm trippin'
It all happened, everything in Ingleburn that we envisioned
Why the fuck am I so lost?
I feel this feelin' like I'm meant to do more
For you all, to not fall
Where do we end up in the end?
I wanna know, it looks like I've just left a mess
I tried my hardest for the stress
But everything just sorta lessened
Remember in the end we all defended the crew?
But then I take it back further and for life I got Boobz
The conscious eats me alive but if I recall right
You told me when we vibed you don't want the spotlight, true?
That makes it easier but I don't know, I'm trippin' out
Never hesitate to ask for anything, I'm spinning out
Started with cassettes on karaoke machines
These kids are startin' on the 'net, how fuckin' dope can they be?
Yous watch me spit it, kick it
Yous were spitting, kicking just to sit
But I legit had OCD, I couldn't quit
And then it hit, boom

Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle
Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle

A fuckin' superstar, massive crowds, newest cars
Copped a house, movin' up, I hope you think I do enough
It's hard to juggle but the hustle's pushing mad rhymes
Ten-for-ten's a mission when my daughter wants more dad time
So if you fallin', help you up, yeah that's the truest trait
If the shoes were on the other feet I know you'd do the same
Aye, Rates, 'member rappin' on that train bro?
You'd drum the beat on the window
And we would hit insane flows
Now we rock insane shows
Aye Jay, let me ask, remember Hank's go?
Snappin' my CDs, I still owe him for the tapes, bro
Shout-out to Digz, he used to wish for me to take over
I fuckin' done it, lads
From poppin' endos when we mixed 'em with our Xanny tabs
To cleanin' up and bringin' dreams into existence
If I'm cursed it's 'cause my cursor's tickin' off a wish list

Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle
Runnin' to this dream and it became part of my lifestyle
Hummin' to this beat, I'm thinkin', "Bro, this is a lifestyle"
Was it worth the switch when I'm comparin' both the lifestyles?
Lifestyle, man, I gave my whole lifestyle

You're my one and only
Lifestyle
When life's crashing down
You're my lifestyle
You're my one and only
Lifestyle
When life's crashing down
You're my lifestyle
You're my one and only
Lifestyle
When life's crashing down
