

Next Time (Won't Give My Heart Away)

Keyshia Cole

The fightin' and the arguin' and cussin' all loud
Sometimes I think you do it just so you can walk out
And you're sayin' plenty things that you really don't mean
Or do you really mean it? 'Cause it hurts...
Then I say some foul shit just so I can hit back
But I don't mean it
We done went too far
Damn I thinks it's over

Next time
I won't throw my heart away, again
I just won't, no I won't
Next time
I won't throw my heart away, again

Seem kinda crazy sayin' you love me so much
How could you bring that woman into our home
Where my baby laid, damn right it's over
And the crazy part about it is I took you right back
I thought you were a changed man
I tried to work it out for the sake of our family
But you took my kindness for weakness
And my love for granted, ooooooh...
I should've known then, if you do it once, you'd dooooo it again...

Next time
I won't throw my heart away, again
I just won't, no I won't
(I won't do it, next time)
Next time
I won't throw my heart away, again
(Sweet baby, sweet baby love)

Oh I miss you but I can't Can't do this no more
The love that we had is gone
I just won't do it no more

I miss you but I can't
Oh no no no no
I won't throw my heart away, again
I just won't, no I won't
I won't throw my heart away, again
Oh baby no I won't
I miss you but I won't
I won't throw my heart away, again.
