Fist Of Furg

Hammered by existence Life beats me down Blow after blow It takes me to the ground I stand in the corner Waiting for the bell I'll fight my way out of this living hell A I stand and feel my world Crumbling to pieces, slipping away I try to hold on, I try to maintain I live this fking life alone My soul is bleeding From the suffering of life I have to fight back Clenched fist, I stare at the sky Burning anger in my eyes Bleed and the pain is sweet On the edge but I won't fall I'm falling and I can't turn back No return I live this life alone No return My soul is bleeding From the suffering of life I have to fight back Using fists of fury

Kickback
