

One And Only

Kids In The Way

K...

Just another broken heart
She let it die and fall apart
I think I finally figured out
It's all a waste of time believing
I need someone

Won't you be one and only
Love songs don't come true
Won't you be my one and only
This song was made for you

I hate losing sleep
Memories are poisoning my brain
I wish it were easier to see
That she's not the reason for the beating
Of my heart

I'm sick of good intentions
Things not mentioned
You're asking me to stay
But pushing yourself away
Screaming in your ear
I'm sorry she's not here
What else can I say?
Give me the time of day
I thought of you last night
Sorry I didn't write
Why can't we be friends
That's how the story ends
