

Ghost White Coma

Kill the Romance

I will let it all flow and never let it go
It's always the same I'll show you how
I, pain, the rain, just to see how we all go

Reaching the light out of this world
The storm is calming still it calls me
My bride of destruction screams to continue
And I'll burn myself

I your only friend, the rest are gone
Throughout the life all in vain
You should not be
Where is the pride
All that is done 'coz I will mind

Reaching the light out of this world
The storm is calming still it calls me
My bride of destruction screams to continue
And I'll burn myself
The devil rules the world I live in
The day after day I love my life in sin
