Landed on a sick canvas now I roll his dead planet head bandaged sent through the god's commandment feel me..

I move through the dark rages and won't stop until your ?

until your bleedin' until you stop breathin' giving careers a severe beatin' for emceeing it's something that I don't take lightly how the fuck you ever fight me, to a duel, I drool, before I break through, then I drag emcees, beat um' down to their knees, grab their necks and squeeze!, till there's no life left, they lifeless, they micless, what a crisis, I give them a good nights rest,

I break they biceps, and triceps, thighs and necks, breast area, is the best area, before I bury ya,

I make sure that you never, ever, ever, ever, try that shit no more, know what I'm sayin', (word is bond), no ambition, put you in that fucked up condition, leave you with your own conviction, shit was non-fiction, now you in a state of non-fiction, make you beg for mercy, if you ever approach me, I blow your head off, when I talk, chop off your arms, and bash your head in, you know where this shit is headin', for a dead-end, stop your sweatin', like Otis Reading, got your pants wettin', snuck up on ya a wedding, at your honeymoon, turn that shit into doom, turn your rap cassettes, into your a fucking caskets, you god damn bastards, lyrics I mastered, rhymes burns like acid..

[ODB]

I'm a complete analyzer of your entire eye, gave ya the tone to tour, to walk on by,

I'm the insect in your pie, the hair to your lie, so good to you why?, yo! question to you why?

the wing to your fly, bone to your high, the dirt dog, I be the god, the tear to your cry, I drop in it, cleanse the Earth's, my place to burst from, gave me the eye..

[Killah Priest]

They made a braid to grave, ceremonies, from religious cults, half man and half goat, tomorrow hopes, based on the horoscopes, we followed goats, our nose and hella smoke, fire breathin' dragons, I rubbed the gold lantern, to the see the future, through the crystal ball, the triple walls of fisher wants to miss the fall, offence, see the coffin, often, fell at the doorstep, coughin, I heard the pipe organ (cough), saw some men of a white origin,

I saw Bill Clinton, Ronald Reagan, and George Bush, bare foot, sucking from the titties of a wolf, upon the braisen altar, 6 men offer they only daughter, splashing holy water, I ran for the, camcorder, now I play with curses, I roam the Earth's surface, snatching purses, allergic to catholic churches, what's the purpose, religious worship, is worthless,

I visit ancient sanctuaries, where the saints were married, but now they buried 'cause of Satan's fury, I faced the jury, held in court, like Christ nailed to a cross, confront my knowledge, like Christ in front of Pontius Pilot, days are violent, standing in a haunted palace, the government wants my wallet..
