

This Love

Kim Richey

This love cannot be bought or sold
It's timeless as a story often told
Oh, and this love is never well behaved
Makes me wanna testify
Stand up, tell the world I'm saved

Oh, daughters of Jerusalem
I have seen the day break
And the shadows flee away

I'll break the chains of fear
In the name of this love
Laugh away the tears
In the name of this love

And this love, it doesn't bow its head
It don't need anybody's blessing
And don't care what anybody says, oh

Oh, daughters of Jerusalem
I have seen the day break
And the shadows flee away

I'll break the chains of fear
In the name of this love
Laugh away the tears
In the name of this love

Oh, daughters of Jerusalem
I have seen the day break
And the shadows flee away
Ooh, ooh

I'll break the chains of fear
In the name of this love
Laugh away the tears
In the name of this love
Name of this love
