

Returning

Kim Walker-Smith

Even the best love, the best thing
Is counterfeit compared to You
Even the highest, the greatest
Is empty outside of You

I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns for You

Always my first love and last breath
Beginning until the end
Keep You, my compass, my lifeline
My whole heart until the end

I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns
I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns for You
My heart burns for You

Silence may fall, oceans may roar
But I will love You, I will love You
Heartache may come, but no matter what
I will love You, I will love You
Depths to the heights, there in the fight
I will love You, I will love You
Winter to spring, with everything
I will love You, I will love You

I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, oh, my heart burns
I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, oh, my heart burns, yeah

Oh, tell Him tonight, yes
My heart, my heart burns for You
It burns for You, only You, Jesus
Only You, only You, only You, yeah
There's no substitute, nothing else could satisfy
There's nothing anymore
Nothing I desire more than You
Oh, oh-oh

I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns

Oh, I'm returning, yes
I'm remembering that You are enough for me, Jesus
I'm remembering that You have all that I need
You have all that I need, Jesus, ha-ha
Oh, I'm not here to just sing some pretty songs
But I'm here to see You, I'm here to find You
I'm here to worship You, Jesus
Oh, my heart it burns, it burns for You
Let our hunger rise, let our hunger rise, let our hunger rise
Let our hunger rise tonight, mm
Oh, to remember the simplicity of it all
Just to feel Your love and respond to Your love, Jesus
Just to feel Your love and respond to Your love, Jesus
Set our hearts on fire tonight
Set our hearts on fire tonight
Set our hearts on fire tonight
Come on lift your voice
Let that be our prayer, let that be our cry
Set our hearts on fire tonight
Set our hearts on fire tonight
Set our hearts on fire tonight, yes
There's no substitute, there's no substitute
Only You, only You
Only You, Jesus, only You, Jesus

I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
There's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns
I'm returning to the place where
My heart burns for You
And there's no substitute, no other
My heart burns, my heart burns for You
