

I Still Believe

Kimberley Walsh

Last night I watched him sleeping
My body pressed to him
And then he started speaking
The name I heard him speak ,was Kim
Yes I know that this was years ago
But when moonlight fills my room I know
You are here still

I still , I still believe
You will return
I know you will
My heart's against all odds

Hold still, yes still
I still believe
I know as long as I can keep believing
I'll live,
I'll live love cannot die
You will return
You will return
And I alone know why

Last night I watched you sleeping
Once more the nightmare came
I heard you cry out something
A word that sounded like a name
And it hurts me more than I can bare
Knowing part of you I'll never share
Never know

But still , I still believe
The time will come when nothing keeps us apart
My heart forever more holds still

It's all over I hear
There is nothing to fear
Christmas taunting you
Won't you let me inside what you so want to hide
I need you too

Hold still
I still believe
I know as long as I can keep believe
I'll live,
You will return and I know why
I'm yours until we die
