

Say Love

Kimberly Caldwell

We can't keep going this way
Take a breath, don't walk out
Who is this demon taking your place?
I don't even know you anymore

Say love, say love
Why is it so hard for you to say love?

You're broken and you're breaking us
I know you need me but it's not enough
And the silence is killing us
So say love

I'm strong enough to leave you
Not strong enough to desert you
Let me show you how to trust
Won't you realize what we have in us?

Say love, say love
Why is it so hard for you to say love?

You're broken and you're breaking us
I know you need me but it's not enough
And the silence is killing us
So say love

You're broken
And you're breaking us
I know you need me
But that's not enough
And the silence
Is killing us...

Say love, say love
What is it so hard for you to say love?

You're broken and you're breaking us
I know you need me but it's not enough
And the silence is killing us
So say love

So say love
Say love
