

Walking On Air

King Crimson

F#m - E(sus4)

F#m

Close your eyes and look at me

E

I'll be standing by your side

F#m

in between the deep blue sea

and the sheltering sky

F#m

if we find no words to say

to the rhythm of the waves

F#m

then we'll both surrender there

Am

walking on air

(E-Emaj7-E6)

And the worries of the day lie down under cover of the fading clouds

the secrets of the night

come alive in your eyes

F#m

You don't have to worry

B

F#m

you don't have to try

Am

cause you don't have a care

you're walking on air
