Vegetable

King's X

If I didn't have a brain
Then I couldn't feel no pain
And the longing to be happy
If I didn't have a name
And everybody looked the same
Maybe I could see the difference

I would give it all away

If I didn't have to change
Everything that I became Maybe I could find some loving
If I didn't have a dream or the rest of everything
Well I'd still be missing something

I would give it all away

If I didn't have a life
And freedom didn't have a price
Maybe I would be a rich man
If I wasn't incomplete
And could control the rest of me
I'd fill this hole and let it bleed

I would give it all away
