

Her Heart

Kira Isabella

She changes her mind like she changes her shoes Everyday is a brand new surprise she might love you a little or love you a lot you can see to her soul through her eyes

But her heart is wrapped in mystery her heart is wrapped in gold You may know that girl down to the deepest part but you can't really know her heart

She made like a maze Theres a thousand different ways that leads you to the same dead end and just when you think you're right on the brink she'll lock the door and lose her keys again

But her heart is wrapped in mystery
You may know that girl down to the deepest part
but you can't really know her heart She doesn't know how to show just how much she wants you to know her heart
You may know that girl down to the deepest part but you can't really know
her heart
