

Daddys' Girl

Kirko Bangz

Heyy hey
Yee... dear daddy's girl,
You know tht daddy loved ya
But right now you still in heaven
So, no one's above ya
Whenever times get cold,
Your in daddy's covers
I know it's crazy but,
Daddy's yet to meet your motha
N if I have then I guess my mission is yet to love her
N in the past if I would've fcked some other,
You will come into this world wid an older brother
Not even knowing now, never even loved this mother
But how can daddy tell 'em moma was a quick fuckn
N his moma askin me to promise that I love him
He think his daddy wouldn't rather anything but him
But my heart ain't wid her so I can't stay
N his mom tryna throw it in yo daddy face
Like I ain't shit n she hope it's hunts me forever
Knowing her n your dad was never together
N that's the start of how black people killin eachother

I jst wanna make it perfect for my baby girl
But ican't, it's such a shame we in a crazy world
I jst wish that I can talk to my baby girl
N give her a little head start so she could see the world (2x)

Yeee... baby, when it come to these niggas,
Keep ya head in yo books, cause these niggas they'll kill ya
They'll try ya, cry ya, bribe ya out yo panties
N leave ya heart broken like 'why ya can't stand me? '
When you did everything he wanted you to do
But when the right thing is what a nigga wants fo' you
That wouldn't cross his mind he like 'whatchu wanna do? '
If it's a walk through the park he reply like 2 or 3 or 4 until his day be h appy,
I jst hope you meet the man tht make my baby happy
With our family, imight as well stop rappin
But wid baby on my mind, I gotta make it happen man
N every late night, I'm wide awake arguin
With yo grandma, she workin like the mexican
N my girlfriend, told me not to call again
Nights like this, I just wish I had my daughter man...

I jst wanna make it perfect for my baby girl
But ican't, it's such a shame we in a crazy world
I jst wish that I can talk to my baby girl
N give her a little head start so she could see the world (2x)

N iknow you gon' hate the talks but, I'm a let chu know
Cause I'm a hate to see the day when daddy let chu go...
N for smooth sailing, daddy will buy you a boat
But daddy know, daddy gotta let his baby grow...
N don't you ever forget our lil conversations
Think about it on your birthday n graduation
N don't worry bout daddy baby, I'm a make it
I jst gotta work hard and have patience

I will never forget our lil conversations
I'll think about it on your birthday n graduation
N don't worry bout daddy baby, I'm a make it
I jst gotta work hard and have patience...

I jst wanna make it perfect for my baby girl
But ican't, it's such a shame we in a crazy world
I jst wish that I can talk to my baby girl
N give her a little head start so she could see the world...
