Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man
Say I'mma keep it real with my niggas stay trill with my niggas man,
Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man.
Say I'mma keep it real, with my niggas stay trill, for my niggas man.

Ey. Shit
My niggas lost his pops, my sister had a kid
My auntie lost her crib, ain't complaining 'bout this bitch
What the fuck I'm on, let em nigga live
But every time I turn around mane its some more shit
My auntie call sayin' 'why you ain't talking to me?'
Before I ball may mane of y'all was talking to me
My cousin Cottie say main things but bonding me out..
But when I was down and out nobody was bonding me out

And my niggas man they looking me like I'm the leader
But I'm just tryin' to give them something that they can believe in
The feel like everybody turn their backs on em
But ain't no way I'm turning my back on 'em

Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man
Say I'mma keep it real with my niggas stay trill with my niggas man,
Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man.
Say I'mma keep it real, with my niggas stay trill, for my niggas man.

Yeah shit,
I pray to God that the times right
And hope I don't get caught in the limelight
My bitch looking at me like what we gon do?
My niggas looking at me like this bitches all for you
My mama looking at me like the choice is yours
Go to the dealership that Rolls Royce is hers
I ain't got shit for my pops and even got lean for my pops
So wish don't even got talk shit for my pops
Uh, and I ain't even really trippin' dog cause now I'm chillin'
Just try to let these niggas, you know about their cheering
They just want u to throw 'em the ball, and when they get old
You wonder why I don't kick it with ya'll damn

Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man
Say I'mma keep it real with my niggas stay trill with my niggas man,
Say I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man.
Say I'mma keep it real, with my niggas stay trill, for my niggas man.

A nigga got nowhere to go (nowhere to go)
They sayin that the young nigga made it
And that im still all on my own (all on my own)

And I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man
And I'mma hold it down for my niggas put it down for my niggas man.
