

Caroline

Kirsty MacColl

She called me up the other day
And left a message on my machine
She called to say you broke her heart
And she wondered if I'd seen you
I didn't know what to do
I never called her back
Oh how could I break the news like that?

No I don't want to see Caroline
Don't want to see her face when she finds out you're mine
Can't look in her eyes and tell her love is blind
No I don't want to see Caroline
I don't want to see Caroline

How can I want you so bad
She has to lose again
How could you walk out on her
And turn to her best friend?
It was wrong from the start
I wish I'd turned you away
And my head said go
And my heart, my heart said stay

And now I don't want to see Caroline
Don't want to see her cry when she knows you're mine
Can't look in those eyes and tell her she'll be fine
No I don't want to see Caroline
I don't want to see Caroline

I'm so ashamed of myself but I still want you
What a terrible thing for a friend to do
I think I've gone too far this time
I leapt across that thin blue line
God help this selfish heart of mine
No I don't want to see Caroline
I can never face Caroline

Though I lie here with you
Can't get her out of my head
Do you think she knows that you share my bed?
Well I don't want to see Caroline
Don't want to see her face when she finds out you're mine
How can a friend be so unkind?
No I don't want to see Caroline
I don't want to see Caroline
I don't want to see Caroline
I don't want to see Caroline
