

Church

Kitten

Heaven eyes will you take me to church?
I've been around some beautiful people
But right now I need something that works
Had enough of these beautiful people

Still alive in the place where it hurts
Innocent, but you'll never believe it
Step aside while you savor these words
Heaven knows, you've got to believe it

Heaven knows that I've put you through hell
But innocent, you'll have to forgive me
The spirit cries like a ghost in a shell
Preachers have not but pleasure but pity

Say goodnight and I'll take you to church
Do you remember the first time you kissed me?
It feels good right there where it hurts
Take it slow I will pray for the city

Now
Suddenly my heart
Leads me right
To your open arms

Oh, I never believed you but now I can see that your call
Spirit is weak but the flesh leads me straight to your arms
Away...

Heaven knows that I put you through hell
But innocent, you'll have to forgive me
The spirit cries like a ghost in a shell
Preachers have not but pleasure but pity

Say goodnight and I'll take you to church
Do you remember the first time you kissed me?
It feels good right there where it hurts
Take it slow you can never resist me

Now...

Suddenly my heart...

Oh, I never believed you but now I can see that your call
Spirit is weak but the flesh leads me straight to your arms, to your arms
Soon you will find your salvation is here in my arms
In my arms
In my arms
In my arms
In my...

Never believed you
Never believed you
Never, never
Never believed you
Never believed you
Never believed you

Never, never, never

But you have my heart

Yeah you still have my heart
