

Fall on Me

Kitten

Trash, a useless photograph
Remember when we used to laugh
At all the lonely, bleeding hearts?
But even so, it's a trap
Knowing what we had
Knowing that we wasted every single kiss
But who am I to reminisce?

So fall on me in your way
Fall gentle like the rain
'Til only one of us remains
Fall on me like a rose
That runs wild as it grows
That runs wild as it tears this world apart

Gone, are you really gone?
You said you needed time to disappear
But now your spirit's gone and your body's here
So long, I've waited for so long
In the streets under violet light
Like a virgin at midnight

Fall on me in your way
Fall gentle like the rain
'Til only one of us remains
Fall on me like a rose
That runs wild as it grows
That runs wild as it tears this world apart

You come in quiet like a thief
And you leave, desperate as a child
Oh, and I'll stand alone with the hell that made me
Sing while the angels serenade me
Change your mind, it was just one kiss
Why shouldn't heaven look like this?

Fall on me in your way
Fall gentle like the rain
'Til only one of us remains
Fall on me like a rose
That runs wild as it grows
That runs wild as it tears this world apart

I'll stand alone with the hell that made me
Sing while the angels serenade me
Change your mind, it's just one kiss
When heaven looks like this
I'll stand alone with the hell that made me
Sing while the angels serenade me
Change your mind, it was just one kiss
You know I've been here waiting for so long
