

Heaven

Kitten

In your way you're so clean but who knows what that means just another perfect machine get on your hands and knees

Silence comes to take you now it's time to close your eyes didn't mean to wake you I just wanted to say goodbye

Away from heaven
we didn't make a sound
if it's forever, are we forgiven now?
In my dreams you are alive
Goodbye

To feel what's good and what's right where is the empty sky or am I dust in the breeze
get on your hands and knees
Just like you said it would be or are we just somewhere in between?

now it's time to close your eyes
I didn't mean to wake you

faith without a sound
if it's forever, are we forgiven now?
In dreams you are alive
Goodbye
