

Secrets

Kitten

Can't stop, what's the use now?
We'll never shake this appetite
You're hiding from your past, it's no surprise
There's a moment when you swallow your pride
But nothing seems to bring the rain down
If you're waiting for the flood
I'll show you where to run

There's no need for jealousy
This isn't a thing we have to talk about
No confessions or "call me, please"
I don't mind if I never know your secrets

I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)

So don't justify all that's been done
When the night has just begun
Let me take you as you are
Without a past ripping apart
In the darkness I was blushing
So if you ask me

There's no need for jealousy
This isn't a thing we have to talk about
No confessions or "call me, please"
I don't mind if I never know your secrets

I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)

This time it's unconditional
We're indestructible
I drive all night
No more waiting for the flood
To ease your mind
I'm your shelter from the rain
I don't feel afraid

I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind, I don't mind, yeah
(If I never know your secrets)
I don't mind
(If I never know your secrets)

I'm indestructible
(If I never know your secrets)
You, tonight
(If I never know your secrets)
No more waiting for the flood
(If I never know your secrets)
To ease my mind
(If I never know your secrets)
If we go our separate ways
(If I never know your secrets)
I won't feel afraid
(If I never know your secrets)
If I never know your secrets)
