

I've Failed You

Kittie

The colors of my summer dress have bled out, faded to grey
I wear it like a scarlet letter, I cannot wipe away this stain
Can't you see that I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
Ugly and telling, I rub my hands but still, the dirt remains
Just let me lie here,
For its the fucking bed I made.
Can't you see that I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
I've failed you
Look how I've failed you
