

Red Flag

Kittie

I feel trapped and it's all
In my dirty hands
These walls are closing in

You always were so hard
To please
You thought you had me on
My knees

I think I'm going under
Red flags for all of this

You're cold and calculating
A knife held to my lips
And this anticipating
Blade bleeding for a kiss

This is the day, and you wait
Is this fate, laying waste
And you'll stay here forever
Stay here forever

And lies
Whispering while beauty dies

I claw my neck for answers
As last life slips away

Take me away
