Candy Kisses

Kitty Wells

Candy kisses, wrapped in paper Mean more to you, than any of mine Candy kisses, wrapped in paper You'd rather have them, any old time

You don't mean it When you whisper those, sweet-love words in my ear Candy kisses wrapped in paper Mean more to you, than mine do, dear

I build a castle out of dreams, dear I thought that you were building one too Now, my castles, all have fallen And I am left alone and blue

Once my heart was filled with gladness Now, there's sadness, only tears Candy kisses wrapped in paper Mean more to you, than mine do, dear
