

Dasher With The Light Upon His Tail

Kitty Wells

Did you ever wonder how Santa gets his light to see
When the moon is in the shadows or hidden behind a tree?
Now we've all heard of Rudolph, how his nose lights up the trail
But I bet you never heard of Dasher with the light upon his tail

Oh, dash away, dash away, dash away, dash away over hill and dale
The reindeer laughs so merrily at Dasher with the light upon his tail

Climbing on the rooftops, down the chimney
Everywhere old Santa goes, he gives him light to see
Dasher has a job to do before they hit each trail
Following old Santa with the light upon his tail

Oh, dash away, dash away, dash away, dash away over hill and dale
The reindeer laughs so merrily at Dasher with the light upon his tail

Climbing on the rooftops, down the chimney
Every where old Santa goes, he gives him light to see
Dasher has a job to do before they hit each trail
Following old Santa with the light upon his tail

The reindeer laughs so merrily at Dasher with the light upon his tail
