The Same Space

Klaxons

Some sort of assembly took us through time / Awakened my mind I was as clockworkyou were alive to prevent my eyes from surprise When we wish for the same things many see signs - some others f ind When we're together we come alive when we organise Collective arrival We share the same space We feel the same impact on arrival and embrace Some joining connection larger than life carried our minds You were in contact - I was alive when your eyes united with mi ne When we rise through the stages many still minds grow as we fin d We are connected weaving our lives - now we're boundless We share the same space We share the same space

We share the embrace
