

All Seeing Eye

Klone

You can't share the pleasure
You can't feel the shame
You can't stop the countdown, it's too late
To come back again

Everybody is guilty
In front of his own ignorance
Everyday I count
The new sheep created

I try to understand
But I can't help thinking that
Someone makes fun of it

I try to understand
You couldn't care even less
Wait and show no regrets

Human behaviour
Has to change
Such a hypocrisy makes me sick
You should be ashamed

Trapped in habits
You're unable to break
The capitalist disease devoured
Your mind once again

Don't let an invisible hand bring you down
Don't let an invisible hand bring you down
Don't let an invisible hand bring you down
