

Empire of Shame

Klone

Let yourself be carried away as in a dream
Long-buried memories
Turn back, turn back to surface
Do you feel able to get up?

I want to see you crumble into dust
The only thing I want is to hurt

I've got all the power I want
I have nothing
I've got all the power I want
I have nothing to deal

Under the influence of fear, you will be crucified
You will fall down in despair
If that's how you feel
No reason for you to leave

I want to see you crumble into dust
The only thing I want is to hurt
I've got all

The Obsession to stay higher
Don't you think anything else

Appearances are deceptive
I am the master of the empire of shame

I want to see you crumble into dust
The only thing I want is to hurt
I've got all
