I'm t-n-t And I just can't lose An emcee with a fuse When it's lit I hit With the lyrical wit Of a scientist Tryin' this Sugar coated Rhyme loaded With gunpowder Now see how the Crowd will yell louder Now the Rhyme is dropped You hear a pop You think it's a shot But you just can't stop Your heart vibrates At my rate So why wait I hate to be irate Anger causes rhyme combustion Like a tornado winds start gustin' Rhymes unload reload and explode Riding on the same wave malcolm x rode On a higher level cause I left the rest Outcast outlast f- the press When I hit it's like a bulldozer Boom and there goes ya Whole world up in smoke Cause when I go I go for broke Yo I'm on the hyped tip I get on the mic with Tunnel vision Cause I'm mic whipped Strung from the lung to tongue I breathe rhymes That come from A zone that's hidden And forbidden If any man enters Good riddance Cause a mortal mind Is just no contest The rhyme zone Is my conquest The twilight zone Will seem like child's play Am I a genius I'll say I'm so cool And yet so hyped When I'm on the mic It's something like World war ii Remember pearl harbor Fireworks

But don't bother To run for cover You don't escape On record Compact disc or tape Once you play it The fuse is lit An explosion You gettin' hit Rhythmic prophecies Visions visions I forsee Me blowin' up in your face Now stop to see Smoke fumes In the shape of a mushroom Cloud the room Cause I went boom I'll light the sky Like halley's comet When it comes to rap I'm it I'm blowin' up I'm blowin' up For the fans that crave Hip hop with relevance I'm here to save Rap from an early grave Like a God I gave Life to the mic As I watch it enslave All the sellouts Who yell out Obscenities and spell out Money to propell out Of the ghetto But like othello You kill the mic A cappella You're in the rap cellar You rap like Rap is a dash for cash You'll run out of gas It's a marathon How long can you last With repetitious nothing Renditions of something You can't create So you imitate the pumpin' Only the strongest Can last the longest I last My reign is the longest In hip-hop history Check the book Victory after victory Man look Rappin' is a science The mic is an appliance So I applied it To an alliance of words Put 'em in a rhyme zone Blow 'em up

Like a time bomb

Other emcees

Caugt the debris

Little bits and pieces of me

Put my ideas on

A track you laid

Is like pulling my pen

Like a grenade

I'm blowin' up

Clap

Your hands to that

Old track that brought back

The man that rap

Better than the next man

I take an ex-fan

And make 'em rock harder than any other can

Whoever didn't understand

My game plan

Should feel ashamed

Like a lame

Cause I'm the same man

That ran the rap yard for years

Worked hard for years

Never got paid slaved and starved for years

Then other rappers came off

With rhymes that were soft

I went with the flow

And you said that I fell off

Don't be bogus

Where's your focus

Did what I had to do to make you take notice

Now the dollar's rolling

No more holding

Back the rap attack I'm back on top controlling

The whole rap game again

Like I did way back when

Def jam was a dream I mean

I was slaying men

I opened my eyes realized and revised

How to get paid

Money was made

Cause I'm wise

Enough to do anything

So I did it

Weak rappers forget it

We've passed the time

Of the nickel and dime rhyme

The proof is in the pudding that's

Why I'm blowin' up

I'm blowin' up

Whoever thinks he wants some

He don't want none

He's got to be insane

Or plain dumb

But if you think

You got something to prove

Jump make your move

But come in a tank

And ten suits of armor

I won't whip ya

I'll bomb ya

When you're on fire

It still ain't enough

Cause I won't just bury you boy
