

Damage

Kosheen

Don't lose your head
I know the damage has been done
I know that I was in the wrong
I should have told you

What can I say has probably been said you probably wish that I was dead and I don't blame you

You won't believe me, but okay it wasn't meant to be this way but at the end of the day I still love you

I'll walk away so dry your eyes can I just apologize?
I know I've hurt you I didn't mean to Look at the damage we have done

Look at the damage
I thought you were the one
Look at the damage

Look at the damage we have done
broken dreams and shattered love
What can we salvage?
look at the damage

To tell the truth
this didn't happen overnight just like we lost the will to fight about a year ago

Just got too familiar and started living separate lives we wanted different things and didn't communicate - 'till it was too late

You drifted further from my mind we were so easily untied it's unbelievable

Don't be unkind you'll come undone you're still a child at 21 so go ahead - find someone who really needs you Look at the damage we have done
Look at the damage
I thought you were the one
Look at the damage

Look at the damage we have done
broken dreams and shattered love
What can we salvage?
