

In the blazing river

Krabathor

a long way from the sun he waked up and his mind, eyes and steps are rambling

they're getting on to knock down a tramp on his kneel well to make him
be full of gratitude he complains towards the sky with the dashed mouth and his blood is changing
into the blazing river

the fire of suffering

at that real moment he overtook their lives turned into the dust they sleep on the river's bottom what were they looking at the end of the evil's way for they found the death in the water or in the fire
