

Black Magic

Kreesha Turner

Stop trying, don't you see the look in my eyes
And stop begging, can't you see I've run out of lies
Stop showing up at my favorite restaurant
And dropping by my work saying you just wanna talk

Don't call me baby
Don't call me baby anymore
Stop running baby 'cause you've run out of time
(Stop running baby 'cause you've run out of time)

And stop asking you know all the reasons why
(Stop asking, you know all the reasons why)
Stop staring through me like you know who I am
(Stop staring through me like you know who I am)

You don't know me
You don't me
Barely knew me then
(You don't know me, you don't know me
You don't know me, you don't)

And don't call me baby
Don't call me baby anymore

Hey, hey, hey walking away now
Walking away now baby
(Oh baby)
Hey, hey, hey walking away now
Walking away now baby
(Oh baby)

Don't call my number
Don't call me over
Don't call me baby anymore

What you gonna do, my love
What you gonna do
What you gonna say this time
What's your excuse

When you gonna break my heart
When you gonna break
Nobody hurts like you

Stop staring through me
Like you know who I am
When you don't know me

You don't me
Barely knew me then
(You don't know me, you don't know me
You don't know me, you don't)

And don't call me baby
Don't call me baby anymore

Hey, hey, hey walking away now

Walking away now baby
(Oh baby)
Hey, hey, hey walking away now
Walking away now baby
(Oh baby)

Don't call my number
Don't call me over
Don't call me baby anymore
