

6 Feet

Krewella

Feels like you're right in front of me
Feels like you're runnin' through my bloodstream
Called your name, cried it out, did I say it too silently?
Know you're on a train, leaving
Stranger in another galaxy
I'll wait, wait until the end of eternity

Yeah, yeah
You're still the only one
But you'll never know
Yeah, yeah
Even when I'm six feet below
You'll never know (When I'm six feet)
Was it just a moment in time?
When you look back, when you look back, eh
Was it just a moment in time?
When you look back, when you look back
Was it just a phase? Was it just a phase?
Was it just a phase to fill the void?
Was it just a moment in time?
When you look back, when you look back

Yeah, yeah
You're still the only one
But you'll never know
Yeah, yeah
Even when I'm six feet below
You'll never know (When I'm six feet)

(Yeah, yeah)
(When I'm six feet)
