

Sometimes when I step into the ring
I feel I'm just a sheep but right now I'm a wolf
I'm headed to the top never stop
On another level baby give me one last look
Cuz I been
I been stuck in circles in my mind
The circles I might live and die in
Cuz I been
I been waiting silent for a sign
And all this time I'm realizing

I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I see nothing but green lights
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I see nothing but green lights

I see nothing but green lights
I see nothing but green lights

When I'm down to zero
Faith has gone way low

Tap into that god mode
And let all the fear go
I walk like a pharaoh
I run with the werewolves
I fly like a sparrow
Up with the angels
And I might be running outta running outta time
Gotta level up my body and my mind
When I'm past the point of done I come alive

I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I see nothing but green lights
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I'm ready I'm ready I'm rah
I see nothing but green lights

I see nothing but green lights
I see nothing but green lights
I see nothing but green lights
Nothing but green lights
