

Know I haven't seen you in a while
New vibe new life new style
I ain't even tryna get you riled
But it's better you're a stranger
Better that we're strangers now
Tell me if you still like being right
Tell me if you still won't see my side
I ain't even tryna to pick a fight
So if I don't see you later
I'm doing us a favor yeah

I don't fuck around with someone who hold me down
Only keep the real real real ones around
You didn't wanna swim but I didn't wanna drown
So if you gotta problem

You could cry me a river
But I'm begging to differ
You put my hand on the trigger
I know I cut you out my life
But you gave me the scissors
It's all for the better
Baby don't let it linger
Blame it on the truth not the liquor
I know I cut you out my life
But you gave me the scissors

Keeping all the focus on what's next
Leave the past in the past no stress
I don't need to fake a fucking flex
It's a mess right now
But I'm on to something better yeah

I don't fuck around with someone who hold me down
Only keep the real real real ones around
You didn't wanna swim but I didn't wanna drown
So if you gotta problem

You could cry me a river
But I'm begging to differ
You put my hand on the trigger
I know I cut you out my life
But you gave me the scissors
It's all for the better
Baby don't let it linger
Blame it on the truth not the liquor
I know I cut you out my life
But you gave me the scissors
