North Dakota

Kris Delmhorst

I love North Dakota
'Cause you have never been there
And the days go on forever
And the towns all look the same

And I can ride the back roads
And I can walk the main streets
And show someone your picture
But they would not know your name

This city is so gloomy
I could stay in bed for hours
Maybe that's why I'm still lying here
Asking you for more

'Cause this never would've happened If you hadn't touched my elbow In that steamy crowded car Heading down the western shore

And you take me to pieces
Your eye sees my favorite me
And I don't know your word for it
But you know what I mean

'Cause there's nothing I like better Than to watch you flirting with the waitress And that's the most inspiring thing That I have ever seen

And there's times that you fight it It's just the way I like it
And I wonder what I'm choosing
I wonder what I'm losing

'Cause at four o'clock this morning You told me the story Of a friend who couldn't stomach All the love that came from you

And oh the straight up
Deep hurt of you
And I don't think that I can handle
Anything that true

And that's why I am leaving And that's why I won't call you I am getting in the taxi Headed for the plane

But I still can feel you breathing Still can hear your fingers play Still can see you Standing in the window pane

And I'm watching your goodbye And I'm trying to cry

Guess I'm not built for this load Guess it's back to the road

So now Delaware is tollbooths Virginia is twilight And Michigan's beef jerky In a small boy's hand

And Arkansas' a skinny cop Oregon is purple hands And Flagstaff Arizona Is delirium at night

And I love North Dakota 'Cause you have never been there And the days go on for hours And the buffalo rowing

And I can ride the back roads I can walk the main streets And no I never ask me When I'm coming home

And I love North Dakota 'Cause you have never been there And the days go on forever And the towns all look the same

And I can ride the back roads
I can walk the main streets
I could show everyone your picture
But they would not know your name

I love, I love, I love I love, I love, I love North Dakota North Dakota, yeah
