

the thin man

Kristin Hersh

We're just a little starving
Two feet away and I can't reach
Two feet away like a dream

You rub your hands together
Sparks fly
The thin man and his hungry wife
Fireworks for you in the sirocco
Fireworks for you in the ozone snow
In the ozone snow

We're just a little lonely
Did you break the promise half asleep
Did you make a promise you can't keep

You rub your hands together
Sparks fly
The thin man and his hungry wife
Fireworks for you in the sirocco
Fireworks for you in the ozone snow
In the ozone snow
