Jack, Jack, Jack

Again we start, let me say my part About the only guy who has some heart It took some time for the heart to come But it's here, and everybody's in fear

Crashin' through the door of that whore Bringin' a end to this gold chain war What you saw, KRS-One is now seeing Another fly human being

Making, no excuses for the losers Chain-snatchers, pimps, drug abusers You don't like it but you gotta keep pushin' Until somebody starts mushin' All these suckers, claimin' to rule the environment Nah man, I ain't buyin' it

You seem to think that everybody can be taught
That everyone else can be bought
But, you took a short, 'cause one guy hasn't been paid
He is the Jack of Spades

Jack, Jack, Jack

He's a, calm kind of guy, courageous and loyal But don't let the temper boil 'Cause just like a pot when the whistle blows That's right boy, anything goes

The crime is committed and he's right on your tail There's no bail, not thinkin' 'bout jail All the ends, are justified by the means when Jack's on the scene

Track the movement, don't lose it
'Cause if he come through the back, he attacks
Crack, cocaine, cops, and more fiends
Who all get the same in the heat of this gold chain game

Here is the aim

Destroy all the stereotypes, hypes, and crack pipes

We don't like, criminals, and crime

But we don't pay it any mind

So here comes Kung-Fu, Joe, and Fly Guy Slade, Hammer, and Slammer I, am a, renegade teacher and scholar And if you ain't up on it you gotta

Fall to the back of the line
Hear this rhyme, 'cause I'ma say it one more time
It's Jack's theme song that KRS made
It's called the Jack of Spades

You know, the Jack of Spades is now down with the BDP Posse If you wanna see more, just watch me
Man, do what I do, throw your hands in the air
And scream it out, ohh yeah, ohh yeah
One more time, ohh yeah
Flash the rhyme

Cool, guy, loud and quiet

If your head's in the way, he'll fly it

Don't try it, 'cause Jack of Spades doesn't buy it

He's a one man riot

Cleanin' the community, of all it's debris The C R I M E The road was long and scary and some didn't make it The average guy couldn't take it

But Jack, is not, the average guy He took a piece of the pie and bit it Got with it, for his brother he did it So you gotta admit it

This is a martyr, a soldier, a hero Why? Because he started from zero In this battle he clearly understands their power They're payin' people by the hour

To sell, to lie, to try, to stand up and deny
They are gettin' everybody high
High on a cable, cash under the table
Currency is how they're able
To buy the cops and props and keep the law paid
But here comes the Jack of Spades

Jack, Jack, Jack
Break it down
Jack, Jack, Jack
Fresh for Jack of Spades, you suckers
