Kryoburn

conceived in fit of passion had no choice but to take my first breath
unjust never asked for never wanted, never wanted to live fallen far away from innocents that i had as a child blood pumps heart heart is racing uncontrollably i expect to die

thoughts raped
amplifies my fears
you were never here

i feel it vibrating below the surface of reality transcend manifesting haunts and fears through and across the void

bleed from
eternal wounds of torment
eternal wounds of judgment

i'm broken into pieces bloodshot eyes stare through and into black in this box of darkness dreams are nightmares i am full of rage

so long, to the end we all come from say goodbye, say its over to the life that we've always known i'm left all alone..
fly away from this pain you've always known

i cant see past tomorrow past the darkness with my life in tact
demons fked addictions broken promise leads me to death

to the end we all come from say goodbye, say its over i'm left all alone
fly away from this pain you've always known

i've fallen deeper into the abyss further than i care to go no hope no return
all i have is nothing

conclusion bringing an end to my life no reminiscing now

no thoughts no control
all i am is nothing
