

Punk Needs Capitalism Like Holmes Needed Moriarty

Kurhaus

our passion is fashion black block cat walk a material scene in a material world fake boys looking for fake girls to hold hands as seen on tv

maybe a better world would be a boring place at least we got something to rebel against do we want to live in a better world? or do we just want to fight for it?
