Carry Me To The Cross

When the path is daunting And every step exhausting I'm not alone I'm not alone, no, no I feel you draw me closer All these burdens on my shoulder I'm not alone, I'm not alone You pull me me from this place Hellelujah You carry me every day You carry me all all the way Hallelujah You carry me to the You carry me to the cross How your love has moved me, yeah To the foot of all your glory I'm not alone, I'm not alone I'm not alone Hallelujah You carry me every day You carry me all all the way Hallelujah You carry me to the You carry me to the cross All of these cities you have built And every cathedral you have filled To all of creation you gave life with your hands And with those hands you comfort me You lift me up from my knees And carry me You carry me Hallelujah You carry me every day You carry me all all the way Hallelujah You carry me to the You carry me to the cross The cross You carry me to the You carry me to the cross
