

I Will Go

Kutless

Life has a way of changing,
And I can't deny that it's time,
To let go of the safe and familiar,
And leave all I've known far behind.

So hold me close, don't let me fall,
It's a chance to prove, Jesus I trust in You.

Stepping out into the water,
Walking into the unknown,
I can't just stay here forever,
Wherever You lead I will go,
I will go with You.

This is a day for new dreams,
A time for my faith to be strong,
My heart's finding peace in the chaos,
I'm ready at last to move on.

Stepping out into the water,
Walking into the unknown,
I can't just stay here forever,
Wherever You lead I will go,
I will go with You.

I might stand in a storm,
But I can't deny, there's no safer place than by Your side,
Draw me close to You, draw me close to You.

Stepping out into the water,
Walking into the unknown,
I can't just stay here forever,
Wherever You lead I will go,
I will go with You.

Stepping out into the water,
Walking into the unknown,
I can't just stay here forever,
Wherever You lead I will go,
I will go with You,
I will go with You,
I will go with You.
