

Need

Kutless

You tore the veil so my eyes could see
Your open arms right in front of me
Lord I feel blind make this darkness flee
You know exactly what I need

Help me God I do believe
But I feel lost and its killing me
I need you right now

God please answer me
I know You're here but it's hard to see
I need You right now

Trying myself to figure it out
It's like standing on sand and swimming in doubt
I know I'm not alone

If all of this time You've been waiting
All of this time for me to say it
Now I'm calling out

You tore the veil so my eyes could see
Your open arms right in front of me
Lord I feel blind make this darkness flee
You know exactly what I need
It's You
