

Taken By Love

Kutless

The world will fade away
As I lift my hands
A king that's worthy of praise
Is the Great I Am

The joy you've given rings out
As I lift my voice

I'm captivated by your ways so I will worship You

You've taken me by love
You've taken me by grace
You've taken me away
I can't resist because You've taken heart

All creation will bow
to the risen king
All of heaven will shout
And the earth sing

The joy you've given rings out
As I lift my voice

I'm captivated by your ways so I will worship You
