

The Feeling

Kutless

I feel like I can't stand still any more
Are you with me
Got a mic, here's the band now get your feet off the floor
Can you hear me

I cannot run away
The feelings got to stay
While we rock all night long
I think that we all know
The reason that we show
The world how real we are

Turn it up, feel the beat, and scream the lyrics you know
Keep it coming
The time is right let's unite to the rock and roll
Everybody

I cannot run away
The feelings got to stay
While we rock all night long
I think that we all know
The reason that we show
The world how real we are

There's a greater meaning
Behind the music that we are bringing
Cause' tonight we are singing
And together we know

We cannot run away
The feelings got to stay
While we rock all night long
I think that we all know
The reason that we show
