

You

Kutless

Clouds rolling on moving shadows
Over the countryside
A ray of light descends from the heavens
You're presence fills the sky

I can't deny what I'm seeing is true
When all I can think of and all I can dream of is
You

You're the love I have always known
And It's You
I will never be alone

You're all I desire You're all that I choose
I guess that explains why I feel like I do
I cannot deny what I'm falling into
When all I can think of and all I can dream of is
You

The earth declares your glory
There's nowhere it can hide
And still you let me in
You draw me to your side

You are my hope and I know that it's true
When all I can think of and all I can dream of is

You

You're the love I have always known
And It's You
I will never be alone

You're all I desire You're all that I choose
I guess that explains why I feel like I do
I cannot deny what I'm falling into
When all I can think of and all I can dream of is
You
