

Big Eyes

Kyla La Grange

This time i'm leaving for good
I'll show them all that I could
Come with me run to the woods
Tell them they misunderstood

And big eyes, don't lie
And big eyes, don't cry
And big eyes, don't lie
And big eyes, don't cry about it

And if all we had to answer was you and me
And if all we had to run from werewolves and beasts
Oh I, could be, a fantasy
And you, could breathe, the night with me

Are you afraid of them now?
Now that your head wears a crown?
I'll be the sword at your side
I'll be your friend for all time

And big eyes, don't lie
And big eyes, don't cry
And big eyes, don't lie
And big eyes, don't cry about it

And if all we had to answer was you and me
And if all we had to run from werewolves and beasts
Oh I, could be, a fantasy
And you, could breathe, the night with me

And if all we had to answer was you and me
And if all we had to run from werewolves and beasts
Oh I, could be, a fantasy
And you, could breathe, the night with me
